Ethics Quarterly

The Therapeutic Relationship and the Physician Obligation

Presentation given by

Richard R. Pesce, MD, MS, FCCP, FACP
Director of Critical Care, Chair of Ethics Committee
Memorial Health Care System, Chattanooga, TN

Beverages will be available!

Who should attend?
• All 1st, 2nd and 3rd year residents and fellows are required to attend;
• All faculty physicians, residents, medical students and staff are encouraged to attend;
• Erlanger physician house staff, nursing staff and hospital administration are invited to attend; and
• Other health care professionals interested in current medical practice challenges.

Educational Objectives
At the conclusion of this educational activity, participants should be able to:
• Understand the definition of the therapeutic relationship;
• Be able to recognize the therapeutic relationship; and
• Be aware of what physician obligation involves.

For Questions Contact
E-mail: CME@Erlanger.org
Phone: (423)778-6884

Accreditation: The University of Tennessee College of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

AMA Credit: The University of Tennessee College of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should claim credit commensurate only with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Disclosure: In accordance with ACCME’s Standards for Commercial Support, all individuals in position to control this CME activity have disclosed to UT College of Medicine all relevant financial relationships within the past 12 months with commercial interests.

The presenter has disclosed that they do not have any relevant financial conflicts and they will not be discussing off-label products.