Tribute to Winston Caine, MD, FACP (1937-2012)

Dr. Caine served as Professor of Medicine for the UT College of Medicine Chattanooga from 1975 -2012. His commitment to the education of medical students and residents as well as continuing education for physicians was exemplary. He was an inspirational teacher and role model as a physician, serving as an attending physician at Erlanger Health System since 1969.

Dr. Caine established and directed weekly MKSAP (Medical Knowledge Self-Assessment Program) review sessions for Internal Medicine Residents and Faculty from 1979 until his death. Dr. David Seaberg, Dean UTCOMC, noted that Dr. Caine’s contribution to education and patient care has significantly impacted and improved the lives of medical students, residents, patients and colleagues. The UT Department of Medicine and Internal Medicine Education Foundation has established a Winston P. Caine Jr. Lectureship Series in his honor.

Presentations

The UT College of Medicine Chattanooga Department of Internal Medicine participated in the scientific meeting of the Tennessee Chapter of the American College of Physicians held in Chattanooga on October 18-20, 2012. Dr. Victor Kolade and Dr. Lisa Staton served on the Scientific Planning Committee for the meeting. Dr. Kolade and Dr. Alex Dwuma, PGY3 Internal Medicine Resident, coordinated a spirited Medical Jeopardy competition during the event. Dr. Kolade and Dr Josh Wintje presented a break-out session on Examination of the Shoulder and Knee.

- The first prize in the clinical vignette medical student category went to Elizabeth Rutter M3 of Chattanooga for her case entitled “Abdominal aortic aneurysm with inferior vena cava compression: an unusual cause of deep venous thrombosis”. Co-authors included Moore R, Zapko D, Ayyoub S, Kolade V.

- A podium presentation was done by Dr. Kristen Dunbar, a Transitional Year Resident: “A Case of CNS Histoplasmosis Complicated by Acute Stroke”, coauthors included Fyall K, Dunbar K, Sizemore J.

Additional poster presenters included:

- Aaron Evans, “Could this be a Case of Mistaken identity?” coauthors included Lewis J, Jackson J, Panda M.
- Dr. Xiangke Huang PgY3, “Triple or Dual Treatment: when PE meets a bare metal stent?”, coauthors included Smith M, Staton L
- Dr. Kristen Dunbar Transitional Year “A Case of Ulcerative Colitis Flare Complicated by CMV”, coauthors included Fyall K; Sunil M, Panda M
- Dr. Christy Stewart, “Double Dilemma: Scleroderma patient with neuromyelitis optica and PRES” coauthor Brit M.

Congratulations

Langhorne Waterhouse, a Grant Writer in the Dean’s Office, successfully completed the Harpeth Hills Flying Monkey Marathon in Nashville, TN on November 18, 2012. Langhorne walked the 26.2 miles to raise money for the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. The Harpeth Hills Flying Monkey Marathon is meant to be an antidote to our age of flat and fast marathons on city streets and in urban jungles, with more focus on times, course certification, gadgets, charities and putting on a big show than on running. It is a marathon about the joy and pain of running a unique, and uniquely challenging, 26.2 mile course in the beautiful Percy Warner Park, nestled among the Middle Tennessee Harpeth Hills.
Comments, articles and announcements for the UT.COM.municator can be submitted in a publishable format to Langhorne.Waterhouse@Erlanger.org

Submissions are due by the last day of the second month for each issue.
