

Porche' Adams, DO

My name is Porche' Warren Adams. I was born in Baton Rouge, LA and grew up in Ringgold, GA with my parents and 3 sisters. I attended Girls Preparatory School in Chattanooga, TN. Upon completion of high school, I attended Furman University in Greenville, SC where I received a BS in Biology. After graduation, I moved to Atlanta and attended Mercer University, where I received my Master's degree in Public Health. My husband and I enjoy spending time with our family and friends, working out, cooking, and attending music and food festivals. I am a true New Orleans Saints football fan, and we enjoy watching OKC Thunder basketball.
