

Amanda Erskine

Super excited to be returning to the area since I spent part of my childhood and my college years in and around Chattanooga. She attended medical school at Loma Linda University School of Medicine. My interests (besides OB-GYN) include international travel, especially to Africa (incidentally where I met my husband), medical mission work, enjoying the outdoors and the four seasons, something I have really missed about TN!